NorthStar Watermedia Society 2024 Members Exhibit

Dan Mondloch

The renowned artist Dan Mondloch in critiquing the show and awarding prizes adds a prestigious element to the society's events. Mondloch's expertise in watercolors and oils, as well as his success in plein air painting, will surely offer valuable insights to the participants.

Offering cash awards and a gift certificate from Dick Blick Art Supplies further incentivizes participation and acknowledges the talent within the society. It's excellent to see sponsors supporting the arts in such a tangible way.

NorthStar Watermedia Society

NorthStar Watermedia Society (NSWS) is a vibrant community dedicated to promoting the artistic use of water-based media in Minnesota. With its establishment dating back to 1975, NSWS has a rich history of nurturing artists and fostering creativity.

NSWS's commitment to artistic growth through demonstrations, workshops, and group activities demonstrates its dedication to fostering a supportive and enriching environment for artists at all levels. Monthly meetings and board opportunities provide avenues for members to connect, collaborate, and contribute to the society's ongoing development.

Overall, NSWS appears to be a thriving community that plays a vital role in promoting watermedia artistry in Minnesota, thanks to its history, programs, and engagement with both local and nationally recognized artists.
